

TIM TECHLOR

TECHNO DJ & PRODUCER

Tim Techlor is "The Driving DJ."

He stands for driving peak time techno (130-145 BPM), which he skillfully weaves together with acid influences and bass house elements. His sets are characterized by a high density of new releases and a clear dramaturgy. Tim Techlor abstains from alcohol and substances and focuses purely on the energy of the music and the connection to the crowd.

His mission: To make the club a safe space where everyone is welcome.

Tim Techlor specializes nowadays in Techno, with a focus on the following sub-genres:

Peak Time, Driving Techno (130 - 145 BPM)

BassHouse, Acid influenced Techno (126 - 140 BPM)

Hard Techno, NeoRave (140+ BPM)

ME & MY SOUND

MORE THAN JUST BEATS

Tim Techlor doesn't just stand behind the decks to play music. For him, the club is a sacred place. His roots lie deep in the experience shared by many ravers: entering a club for the first time and realizing that here, protected by darkness and bass, you can finally be yourself. No dress codes, no social masks, no judgment.

"I got into the techno scene because I was allowed to just be ME. I stood on the dance floor, closed my eyes, and let myself go. It's exactly this feeling of 'home' and freedom that I want to give back today as a DJ."

Tim Techlor's mission is to create a safe space. A space of harmony and lightness where everyday life is left at the door. His philosophy for the dance floor is as simple as it is effective: "Don't be an asshole." Those who take this rule to heart will find pure energy, acceptance, and escapism in Tim Techlor's sets.

PERFORMANCE

Tim Techlor is the reliable anchor of nightlife. Standing at almost two meters tall, he has a commanding presence, but without any star airs and graces.

He is the Sober DJ: always sober, always focused, always in control. He delivers intoxicating experiences exclusively through frequencies, not substances. This guarantees event organizers not only technically flawless mixing at the highest level (often on 3 or 4 decks), but also absolute professionalism before, during, and after the gig.
